The United States respectfully requests a 30 day extension of time to file the parties' Joint Pretrial Order, which is currently due to the Court no later than January 9, 2014. This deadline has not been previously extended. The basis for this request is as follows:

1. On January 8, 2014, undersigned counsel contacted John Lusk, attorney for defendant Harry Portnoy, who stated that he did not oppose this request for an extension.¹
2. On October 16, 2012, the Court entered the Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order in this case. (Doc. 18.)

3. Pursuant to the Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order, the parties are required to file their Joint Pretrial Report no later than January 9, 2014. (Doc. 18.)

4. Counsel for both parties have been working diligently to resolve this case without the need for trial. At this time, the United States has proposed a specified conduct injunction that would resolve all claims in the case, and the defendant and his counsel are currently considering that proposal.

5. As a result of these recent settlement discussions, counsel for both parties believe that settlement of this matter is possible, and that good cause exists to grant an extension of time to file the Joint Pretrial Report.

6. The additional time will allow the parties to continue their settlement discussions and focus on a final resolution of this matter, rather than potentially unnecessary pre-trial preparation.

7. Accordingly, this request is not made for purposes of delay, but to possibly resolve this matter and conserve scarce resources.

8. The parties have otherwise litigated this case expeditiously, including the completion of discovery without any requests to extend discovery deadlines.

WHEREFORE, the United States respectfully requests a 30 day extension of time to file the parties' Joint Pretrial Order, which is currently due to the Court no later than January 9, 2014.

Dated: January 8, 2014

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Richard G. Rose
